

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, March 3

1998

Recycling Committee to Reward Environmental Good Deeds

On Earth Day, April 22, MSFC's Recycling Committee will recognize employees and on-site contractors for environmental good deeds. Winners will receive gift certificates to Wild Birds Unlimited. E-mail nominee's name, mail code, telephone number and brief description of the environmental good deed to Ted Ellett, 4-4778 or Doug Danley 4-4770.

Center Director's Employee Update, 10 a.m., March 11 in Morris

Lunch-N-Learn Skin Cancer Seminar Set for Noon Wed. in Bldg. 4200

"Decreasing One's Risk of Skin Cancer" will be the topic during a Lunch-N-Learn Seminar noon-12:45 p.m. Wednesday in Morris Auditorium, Bldg. 4200. Huntsville dermatologist Dr. John K. Sowell will discuss methods of prevention, diagnosis and treatment of skin cancer. MSFC employees, contractors and family members are invited. Contact: Dr. Bruce Mather, 4-7549.

MARS Golf Tournament Planned For March 14 at Chesley Oaks

The MARS Golf Club is set to kick-off its first of eight 1998 tournaments on Saturday, March 14 at Chesley Oaks. This tournament is open to all MSFC employees, contractors and retirees. The entry fee is $4 with green fees paid at the course. Deadline for entries is noon Friday. Contact: L. Foster, 4-1589; J. Butler, 4-3808; J. Loose, 4-2422 or R. Harwell, 4-2684.